RAIN A NEW DERBY FACTOR

DOWNFALL MAKES CHURCHILL DOWNS RACE TRACK SLOW AND POSSIBLY HEAVY.

Ante Post Quotations Make Regret and the Butler Entry Equal in Favoritism-Notables and Others Arriving in Droves.

Louisville, Ky., May 7.—Converted track conditions as a result of last night's steady rain brought about a more complex aspect in the Kentucky Derby and makes the winner more uncertain. Doubt as to Regret's ability to run in stiri going successfully last caused her to lose many friends, and the same applies in Pebbles' case. On the other hand Double Eagle has gained in respect and Royal II. also has been partially restored into favor. Fine weather is again promised for tomorrow and under the constant labors of the harrow men, assisted by wind for the running of the Derby and it might upset the calculations of those form students who gave mud performances preference. That the race is held to be an open one is shown in the fact that nineteen starters are carded, the owners having a mrn belief that they can annex the valuable plum. At least fifteen of those named are regarded as certain starters.

Ante-post play is unusually light, the big field and infined track beling held responsible for this, difficult track beling held responsible for this, and the course remained dry Harry Payne Whitney's filly would have been the popular choice. At present she is sharing favoritism with the Butter pair. Pebbles and Kilkenny Boy, at 5 to 1. Emerson Cochran. Royal and Double Eagle are next in esteem at 10 to 1. Schuyler and the Schore entries are at 12 to 1, Dortch. Leo Ray and For Fair 15 to 1, Norse King 20 to 1. Tetan and Little String 30 to 1, and Uncle Bryn and Commonada the outsiders are at many and the big race continues to be the main topic of conversation. It is remarkable how diversified opinion is as to the outcome. According to predictions the mutuel play on the Derby this year will exceed in volume that of any former season and the winner will be at a long price, even if the favorite. The rain will not have any deterring effect on the expected attendance. Every train is loaded with visitors from all parts of the country and the proper summary and the parts of the parts of the country and the proper summary and th

LEXINGTONIANS GOING TO THE DERBY.

Lexington, Ky., May 7.—A large crowd of racing devotees will go from Lexington and other points in the blue grass region to Louisville tomorrow to witness the running of the Keutucky berby. As a matter of sentiment, many persons bere will back Leo Ray and Emerson Cochran, both locally owned, but there seems to be no very definite idea as to what horse may win the race, Messrs, H. K. Knapp, F. R. Hitchcock, John Sanford, Preston Burch, Gifford A. Cochran, Phil Dwyer, Price McKinney, E. C. Cowdin, P. A. Clark and other well-known eastern turfmen left here today for Louisville.

James P. Ross today sold Kilcrea to P. A. Clark and she will be shipped to New York tomorrow to be put to steeplechasing.

John Sanford bought Pins and Needles from W. P. Scully and will breed her to one of the Hurticina stad stallions.

John E. Madden has bought a yearling brown coil by Marta Santa—Divination from John D. Carr.

Brown's Melissa has a chestnut filly by ee and she will be mated with Ivan the Ter

RECORD OF THE GREAT RACE TO BE RUN AT LOUISVILLE THIS AFTERNOON.

After weeks of discussion of the probabilities attending the outcome of this year's Kentucky Derby, the time for action has arrived and at Churchill Downs this afternoon a big band of splendid young horses will make another momentous addition to the history of racing at Louisville. It is a long time since Price McGrath's "red horse," Aristides, put in to make the running for his stable mate, Chesapeake, performed his task so well that at the end of the Derby's then mile and a half route such after celebrities as Ten Brotck, Bob Woolley, Bill Bruce, Searcher, Ascension and Chesapeake as well were breathless and exhausted when he swept home in gallant triumph. In all that time no better or better-tested field has ever centested the race than that which will go to time post today. The record of the race is as follows:

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

The fee for registration of every horse imported into South Africa for racing purposes has been increased to fifty guineas.

Tom Cannon, the famous English rider, has just celebrated his sixty-ninff birthday. He had his first mount and first win on the same day in 1869, when he was fourteen years old.

John E. Madden has sold to Gifford A. Cochran, of New York, the good mare Veil, dam of Vanitie, now in England, and sister to Maskette, winner of the Futurity for the late, James R. Keene, and

The sinusual occurrence of a dead heat between three uprses was returned in the Walton Two-years old Plate at Sandown Park, England, on April 23. Somall, Kitty O'Hara and the unnamed colt by Littleton—Portia sinished so closely together that the official eye could not separate them.

Special coaches carrying many Cheage strf followers will roll out of the Polk street station over the Monan at nine o'clock tonight for Louisville, to view the running of the Kentucky Derby Saturday. The Sportsmen's Club of America is managing the special arrangements and reports that Roger Sullivan will have a coach for his party, while Pot O'Malley will have the same accommodations for his guests.

A New York dispatch to the New Orleans Picayune says: 'Indications point to the sale of the big race track at Havana to an American syndicate in the near future. It is learned that Curley Brown, who built the track at an outlay of nearly $500,000, has had enough of racing in Lavana was conducted at a big loss and Brown does not care to reopen next winter.'

Word has just reached San Francisco of the death of Jimmy Lee, the great colored jockey, at his home in Raceland, La., the other day. Lee achieved fame by riding six winners in one day at Latonia seven years ago. He was also in the mount on Dorante in the Burns Handicap when Eddie Dugan beat him out with King James in a hot stretch shish. Report has it that Lee was not a success. DEAD HEATE BETWEEN THREE OR MORE.

A recent occurence in racing at Sandown Park led London Sportsman to say: "Pead heats between three are rare. There was an instance at Sandown Park yesterday when the Portia colt. Kitty O'Hara and Somali finished in a line for the Walton Two-Year-Old Plate, and according to rule the stakes were divided. Probably the most recent instance of a triple dead heat was at Haydock July Meeting, 1902 when Ardandra. Pledge, and the Outery filly could not be separated for the Makerfield Handicap. In the run-off Pledge won, only to be disqualified on behalf of Ardandra for a cross, the ultimate winner also being the original favorite. Another notable instance was for the Astley Stakes at Lewes in 1880, when five horses finished so close together that it caused no surprise when the numbers went up to find that Prince Soltykoff's Scobell, Mr. H. Chaplin's Wandering Nun and Lord Cadogan's Mazurka were bracketed for first place, the other pair deadheating a short head away for second position. At Newmarket Houghton Meeting, 1855, there was a deadheat between four for a Sweepstakes, with the fifth runner only beaten a half length. The quartette ran off, with the result that Overreach won by a head from The Unexpected, with Gamester a half length away. T. Cannon figured in a triple deadheat at the Newmarket Second October Moeting in 1877. In Post Sweepstakes he rode Mr. Houldsworth's Tredegar, Goater had the mount on Juval, owned by Count F. de Lagrange, and Constable rode Fair Lyonese for Mr. Cartwright. The trio deadheated, but Cannon won the run-off from Juval, Singularly enough T. Cannon and Goater rode in the Lewes dead heat already mentioned. Scobell (Cannon up) afterwards walking over. There was a peculiar inasmuch that the ultimate winner, Marden, carried five pounds less than she ought to have done, though these errors were not discovered until it was too late for an objection to be made. A famous triple dead heat the was that for the Cesarewitch of 1857 between Prioress, El Hakim and DEAD HEATS BETWEEN THREE OR MORE.

FAST RACING AT PIMLICO

COY WINS AT LONG ODDS IN A CLOSE FINISH OF THREE.

Klebourne Takes the Oriole Handicap in Improving Form-Cliff Field First in His Race-Selling Handicaps Popular at Pimlico.

Pimlico, Md., May 7.—A well balanced program furnished some exciting sport at Pimlico this afternoon. The best contest came with the running of the three-quarters selling handleap in which half of the starters finished in a close bunch, the first three necks and nose apart. Coy paying nearly twenty to one in the mutuels got up in the final strides to beat Monty Fox a neck, with Jim Basey third, a nose away. Marjorie A. was appead on the latter. The early pace in this race was extremely fast, the first quarter being run in 23%.

Amos Turney furnished the winner of the Oriole Handleap, the feature race of the card, in Kieburne, which came from behind to beat Kewessa in the final strides. The winner ran the sevencighths in 1:26%, which is within two-fifths of the track record made by Zeus in 1911.

Bryndown, Escocia and Miss (Cavanagh fought it out in the Eikridge Steeplechase and the result was in doubt until after they had taken the last fence, when Bryndown drew away. In rounding the turn the last time around where Grand attempted to get through on the inside with Miss Cavanagn, he was crowded against one of the flag posts with force enough to knock it down. The mare was taken up at this point but came again and finished gamely. Grand lodged a claim of foul which was not allowed after long deliberation by the stewards. In the Wyoming Selling Handicap Wooden Shoes and Lazuli dashed to the front and raced like a team until entering the homestretch, where Cliff Field came from behind and drew away into a team until entering the homestretch, where Cliff Field came from behind and drew away into a lead of a length, which he retained to the end. Lazuli was only a nose in front of Wooden Shoes. These selling handicaps are proving popular at Pimlico and a majority of them have furnished stirring contests.

NOTES OF THE TURF FROM OTHER LANDS.

The stewards of the British Pony and Galloway Racing Association have decided not to sanction any race meetings under their rules during the continuance of the war. Colonel James E. B. Baillie has been unanimously re-elected president of the association.

the association.

The death is announced at Christchurch, New Zealand, of Edward Cutts, a well known race horse trainer, at the age of seventy-seven years. For thirty years the deceased was private trainer for Sir George Clifford. He trained the winner of nearly every important event in New Zealand.

The classic three-year-olds belonging to M. Edmond Blanc and trained by Tom Jennings at Newmarket are, says "Le Sport Belge," on the authority of George Stern, quite backward. They include the two Derby colts, Florimond and Le Melior, and the Oaks filly, Glaconda II.

It is rumored in London, and with some degree of confidence, that the stewards of the Ascot meeting will arrange to hold only three days' racing this season instead of four, and that the important weight-for-age events will be decided, but that the handleaps may disappear from the program. But there has been no official action in the matter.

At the Brookleigh Stud, Leighton Buzzard. April 23, the stallion Hackenschmidt suddenly dropped dead from heart failure. Foaled in 1901, he was by Bushey Park—Vici, by Enthusiast—Clear Case, by Arbitrator, and won several races as a three and four-year-old, at the latter age accounting for five off the reel. He broke his fetlock during the winter of 1905-6, and was thereupon sent to the stud. His best winner is Catch Penny, and others were Penny Box and Coram Populo, of which the last named won over $10,000 in stakes abroad.

According to "Dentscher Sport" no fewer than ten members of the French Jockey Club have fallen on the field of battle. The latest name to be added to the Roll of Honor is that of Prince Ernest Arenberg, the second son of the president of the Jockey Club. Those that fell before him were the Comte de Brabancois, Count F. de La Tour du Pin Chambly, Comte de Murard, Comte Charles de Vogue, Marquis de la Baume-Pluvinel, Comte Henri de Pimodan, Comte Guy de Beaumont and Baron Edgar Lejeune, and the Due de Lorge, It states that the report of the death of the Marquis Saint Sauveur was incorrect.

Greenan is doing well as a size in South tracein.

Sauveur was incorrect.

Greenan is doing well as a sire in South America, two of his get winning good races in successive days last month. The one was Petite Chose, a three-year-old winner of a six furlong handicap worth $7,000, and the other, Cortesia II., won a juvenile race (five furlongs) worth $4,000. It would be indeed surprising if Greenan's stock did not race, for he is by St. Simon out of Sunrise, the latter a granddaughter of the famous No. 1 family brood mare, Sunshine. It was to this female line that so many of the late Mr. J. H. Houldsworth's winners in England traced, and Greenan was not only a good horse bodily but also a successful race horse.

HARE HILL TAKES THE CHESTER CUP.

At the Chester, England, meeting last Wednesday the Chester Cup of $7.750 for three-year-olds and over at about two and a quarter miles was won by C. B. Ismay's five-year-old chestnut horse Hare Hill by Pam—Lady Dern, carrying 108 pounds. J., Dugdale's six-year-old chestnut gelding Pollen, by Pictom—Folle Farine, 103 pounds, was second and J. Dunkerly's four-year-old chestnut colt Parrot, by Your Majesty—Bird of Fame, was third. The betting was 11 to 2 Hare Hill, 2½ to 1 Pollen, and 100 to 7 Parrot.

At the same meeting on Thursday the Dee Stakes of $5,600 for three-year-olds at a mile and a half was won by F. M. Wise's brown colt Achtoi, by Santoi—Achray, with Lord Wolverton's brown colt Passport by King's Messenger—Bokaal, second and Donald Fraser's brown colt Brown Ronald, by Dark Ronald—Flying Agnes, third.

The French ministry of war Thursday night made public a statement in which all German claims of successes in the west were denied. The statement summed up the results of the latest German offensive as follows: "During the last fifteen days the enemy has attempted a heavy offensive which we speedily broke down. The total of the German losses in the heights of the Meuse, in the Woevre and the Vosges has been more than 35,000. At mo part have they broken through our lines. They have taken no important position from us. They have taken no important position from us. They have taken no important position from us. They have allowed half a dozen of their finest regiments to be decimated."

The Italian government continues its war preparations. The fleet is ready for action and the first thing to be done after war is declared will be the gazetting of the Duke of the Abruzzi as commander in chief of the royal fleet. The government has issued a royal decree authorizing the suspension of telegraph and telephone service without notice. Premier Sallandra and Prince von Buelow were in almost constant conference yesterday. The German ambassador is trying to persuade Italy to remain neutral, but it is admitted that he considers the attempt a serious one.

Italy has been warned of the consequences of entering the war on the side of the consequences.

minassande is trying to persiade Italy to remain neutral, but it is admitted that he considers the attempt a serious one.

Italy has been warned of the consequences of entering the war on the side of the allies. Telegraphing from Berlin, to which he had returned after an inspection of both battle fronts, the kaiser notified Prince von Buelow that the English troops in the west are useless and that within a fortnight the Russians will be driven out of Galicia. Italy was warned, under direct instructions from the kaiser, that Austria's cause is Germany's and that Austria's cause is Germany's and that Austria's nemies must be Germany's. Because of this should Italy come into the war she will be opposed by a great German army.

A dispatch from Havre to the London Daily Telegraph of May 7 says that Prince de Ligne, president of the Belgian Red Cross, reports that General von Bissing, the German governor of Belgium, has dispossessed the Red Cross from its power and seized funds amounting to $40,000. The dispatch states that Prince de Ligne has filed protests with Brand Whitlock, United States minister to Belgium, and the international headquarters of the Red Cross at Geneva.

A dispatch from Peking of May 7 says there is good reason to believe that China is prepared to concede everything demanded by Japan, realizing that the situation is hopeless. This possible outcome to the present tense situation is not generally comprehended in Peking; consequently a number of foreign residents, as well as Chinese themselves, are packing their personal belongings and otherwise preparing for eventualities.

A Rome dispatch says that a state of siege has been declared at Fiume, the Austro-Hungarian

A Rome dispatch says that a state of siege has been declared at Flume, the Austro-Hungarian seaport on the Adriatic, and it is to be extended shortly throughout the southern provinces of Austria-Hungary. Upon receipt of a dispatch from Berlin the German school in Rome suddenly closed Thursday afternoon. The teachers, with a number of German families, left almost immediately for Germany.

An Athens dispatch of May 7 says that three Russian aviators, operating from the Russian Black Sea fleet, flew over Constantinople, bombarding the city from the air. According to dispatches received great damage is believed to have been done. Shells fired from Russian warships against the Turkish forts upon the Bosporus fell within ten miles of the Turkish capital.

Fifteen persons were killed and more than two score injured by a tornado late on Thursday, which passed through the western part of Acadia Paris in southern Louisiana. Much damage was done in Oklahoma by heavy windstorms. At Wilson forty-five buildings were blown down. Snow fell at several places in western Kansas, eastern Colorado and north into Nebraska.

The Nieuw Rotterdamsche Courant says it learns from Berlin that Emperor William arrived in Berlin yesterday at noon from headquarters and that he was enthusiastically cheered by the populace. "From the station to the palace," the newspaper adds, "the emperor's motor car could proceed only slowly through the dense crowds. The emperor was looking fresh and well."

A dispatch to the Geneva Tribune of May 7 from Vienna says an army corps under Archduke Eugene has arrived at Moravitz, ten miles from the Serbian frontier, advancing against Serbia.

Commenting on Fiz Yama's notable triumph in the Great Metropolitan Handicap at Epsom, April 20, with the top weight of 123 pounds on his back. London Sportsman of the day following said: "Since Fiz Yama won the Alexandra Plate at Ascot last year he had done little of note, but he reproduced that running in the Great Metropolitan at Epsom yesterday. His success prior to Ascot last year was in the Cesarewitch, and the son of Santoi, in scoring yesterday under the top weight, accomplished a capital performance. Only, Lagos (1910) had scored under a bigger impost in the Metropolitan since Parole's win in 1879, and the only other instance of more than 123 pounds being carled to victory in this race was by Dutch Skater in 1872, so that Fiz Yama's victory was all the more creditable. Rain fell before the decision of the important event, and the inspection of the candidates was carried out under comfortless conditions. Knight's Key was installed favorite, but with Major Symons was left at the post, the pair practically taking no part in the race, cantering on after the others. For about two miles through on the rails, and staying on gamely won by a length from the Weyhill horse, with the hurdler, Desmond's Song, next best.

J. J. SCHREINER

AMERICA'S PREMIER CLOCKER.

AMERICA'S PREMIER CLOCKER.

I have just arrived from Lexington race meeting and I am in a position to give winners. No handicapping or guess work with me, but genuine information. Remember, the stable money is bet on those I give. Have had 20 years practical experience as trainer and clocker. Have a clocker of your own. You can employ me for $5 for any five days, or $10 for the meeting of 12 days. May 8, opening day. Get in early and be ready for opening day. Will send code. Telegraph remittance or remit by express order in letter. I wire one or two horses daily at 11 a. m. Propositions not considered. Strictly cash. Louisville clients call or phone.

or phone.

Don't fool your time and money away on quack dope and cheap tips. Consult a specialist of the game.

Hotel Preston :: Louisville, Ky.

BACK AGAIN!

The coterie of smart Kentuckians that won on the circuit last fall will be right on the job again at the spring meeting here. To those not on my list, I will make my regular terms as follows: $2.00 in advance as an evidence of good faith and on every horse wired remit me the winnings of a $1.00 bet. Remember, I am ON THE GROUND—have the real information and only wire when conditions are right and the stable is in action. The first one goes Tuesday, May 11. Louisville clients please inquire for me at the track any morning between 5 a, m. and 11 a. m.

P. J. WALKER, Hotel Preston, Louisville, Ky. BACK AGAIN!
